

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, May 29 1708.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated May 29.

Presbourg, May 10.

SINCE the Return hither of Count Illierhafi Chancellor, and M. Huniady Referendary of the Court of Hungary, Conferences on the Affairs for which the Diet was call'd are daily held, in which the Grievances of the Nation are particularly debated, that they may be sent in Writing to the Emperour. Some Days ago 8 Malecontents were brought hither Prisoners; and we receiv'd Advice from the Island of Schut, that a Fire had happen'd in the Quarters of the Regiment of Hanover, and consum'd much of their Baggage. The 8th came Advice, that the Malecontents having set on fire the little Town of St. George within a few Leagues of this Place, 110 Houses were burnt, with the Churches and Convents. One of the Enemy's chief Party-Leaders, nam'd Jasper Zandor, has deserted to us. 'Tis rumour'd, that the Malecontents incline to agree to a Suspension of Arms; but seeing they have often pretended to the same good Disposition, without any real Intention, and continue to make Preparations of War, we see no Likelihood of bringing them to an Accommodation, otherwise than by Force of Arms.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated June 1.

Vienna, May 16. The 11th Instant arriv'd here from Presbourg the Count de Siczi, who reports that Bothiani one of the chief Leaders of the Malecontents died lately at Newheusel. The Field-Marshal Count Heister being very vigilant to snatch Occasions of incommoding the Enemy till the Troops design'd to form his Army are arriv'd in Hungary to open the Campaign, went the 11th Instant to Oedenburg, and thence march'd in the Night with a Detachment of Horse with each a Foot Soldier behind him to Ghins, with Design to surprize Berezedi, one of the Leaders of the Malecontents, who had his Quarters there. He caus'd Colonel Schilling commanding the Regiment of Dragoons of Bareich, to advance by another Road to Ghins with 200 of his Dragoons and some Hussars; and the Colonel surpriz'd an advanc'd Guard of the Enemy, and entred Pellmell with them into Ghins, where they fought with great Fury. Berezedi who had Time to mount on Horseback, escap'd by passing through our Men, who took him for one of their Comrades. Many of his Men were kill'd, his own and his Officers Baggage were taken, as were also his Kettledrums, his Standard and above 200 Horses, with his Wife and some other Prisoners which were carried to Oedenburg. Berezedi having rallied with all Expedition his Men that had fled, and drawn together those of the neighbouring Quarters, made several Attacks upon our Forces in their Retreat, to recover his Wife; but was every time repuls'd. General Heister return'd to Court Yesterday Morning from Oedenburg. A Courier from Transilvania, has brought Advice that all is quiet in that Principality, and reports that in his Passage through Peter-Waradin he found General Rabutin there in his Way hither. We learn by the last Letters from Moravia, that a Body of 8000 Malecontents had taken by Assault the Castle of Setin at a little Distance from Olmutz, that they cut in Pieces above 500 Persons who had retir'd thither, and then plunder'd the Castle. After this bloody Execution, they sent out several Detachments, who plunder'd the neighbouring Viages, and massacred some Gentlemen with their Families at their Country-Seats, which they pillag'd. They drove away the Cattle, set the Houses on Fire, and left in all Places Marks of their Barbarity.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 2.

Vienna, May 19. The Count de Torrefina dispatch'd an Express Yesterday to the Duke of Guastalla his Master, to acquaint him that the Emperour, has by the Advice of his private and Anlick Council resolv'd, to grant to his Highness the laid Duke Vincenzo Gonzaga, the Investiture of the Imperial Fiefs of Sabionetta and Bozzolo; as being the next Heir in Blood to the late Giovanni Francesco Gonzaga, Duke of Sabionetta and Prince of Bozzolo. The Count de Sclick is to set out within 3 or 4 Days for the Moselle, whither Prince Eugene of Savoy will follow him by the 25th or 26th Instant. The Pope has sent a Letter to the Emperour, in which he threatens to employ the Spiritual Arms of the Church against his Imperial Majesty, unless he revoke the Order forbidding the sending of any Money from the Milaneze to Rome. But this Court is little concern'd at those Menaces, and have order'd a Deduction to be Printed, shewing from Authentick Proofs that the House of Austria and not the Roman Pontiff have the lawful Right to the Kingdom of Naples, and that the present Pope has dealt unjustly by that House.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 1.

Venice, May 19. The bad Weather on Whitsunday, oblig'd our Doge to put off till to Morrow the Ceremony of Marrying the Sea; for which great Preparations had been made: Yet on Whitsunday the Doge gave the usual Feast with great Magnificence. Several Pieces of Velvet and Silks of foreign Manufacture, which had been imported contrary to the Prohibitions, were by Order of our Government burnt in the Place of St. Mark; the Senate being desirous to prevent the introducing of foreign Luxury, and to encourage our own Manufactures. Letters from Constantinople of the 6th of April confirm the Accounts we had before of the Grand Signior's Application to fill his Coffers; and tell us he has sent to Sea 3 Ships of the first Rate, and 4 of the third, to collect Tribute of the Islands in the Archipelago, to convoy the Caravans, and to cruise against the Corsairs; but assure us he persists in his Resolution to maintain Peace with the Christian Potentates.
